

TUCSON BASKETBALL LEAGUE RULES

(For those who persistently claim we don't have any)

1. You must have at least five players in the gym at game time in order to start the game. There must be at least five people who have played on your team at least once before. Therefore, you can't walk in the gym with four guys and say, "Uh, that guy in the stands, he's on our team." No, he isn't. However, if you have five guys who have played on your team before, you can add that guy. Starting with the Fall 2010 season, with the exception of a handful of long-time league members who are grandfathered in, players can only play on one team. After this season, the rule will apply to ALL league members.

2. You can add players as the season goes along, but they can only begin playing if you have the aforementioned five players, as well. Under extreme circumstances, allowances can be made if you call me in advance. You cannot add new players for the playoffs.

3. IF YOU FIGHT OR EVEN THREATEN TO FIGHT, YOU ARE OUT OF THE LEAGUE FOREVER!! AND THIS IS NOT THE NBA WHERE LIFETIME MEANS A YEAR OR TWO. IT MEANS FOREVER.

4. We also reserve the right to get rid of people just for being jerks. And "jerk" is like what the Supreme Court said about obscenity: We can't define it, but we know it when we see it.

5. We have lots of games without a break, so get here on time. If your team is not in the gym, ready to go, by 10 minutes after the hour, it is a forfeit. If your team forfeits, you must pay $20.00 before your next game. (The money will go into a scholarship fund for our high-school scorekeepers.) If you forfeit again, it will be another $20.00; your team can finish the regular season but will not be in the playoffs and won't be in the next league. This will weed out the latecomers and it will make for a better league overall.

6. CLEAN UP AFTER YOURSELVES, YOU PIGS! DIDN'T YOUR MAMAS RAISE YOU RIGHT? If your team leaves anything by the bench after the game is over, your next game will be forfeited. If the problem persists, your whole team falls into that aforementioned "jerk" category.

7. NO FOOD IN THE GYM. While you may find it hypocritical for the refs and scorers to eat, we're here for 13 hours on Sunday and can't get away. If you want to stay after until 10:00 and help us clean up, you can eat. Otherwise, tough it out for an hour. And that goes for your fans and honeys.

8. Teams must wear shirts that are at least CLOSE to being the same color. I don't want teams that are wearing red, blue, black and green and then saying, "We're dark!" And grey doesn't count as light OR dark unless you all have grey shirts. And Dan can't go skins. Ever.

9. Have fun. Play hard. Don't whine.
